

Gartner CEB Transaction: Letter to CEB Staff Members from Gartner CEO

Email Subject Line: A Message to CEB Staff Members from Gene Hall, CEO, Gartner

We have long admired CEB and have tremendous respect for what you have achieved. We share your core values, commitment to innovation and passion for delivering outstanding client service. The entire team at Gartner is excited to work with you to create the leading global research and advisory company for all major functions in the enterprise and to further enhance our ability to serve all our clients around the globe.

As you may already know, Gartner (NYSE: IT) is the world's leading information technology research and advisory company. We are known for our analyst-driven, syndicated research and advisory services in Information Technology (IT), Marketing and Supply Chain. Like CEB, Gartner has a rich history and culture that is both collaborative and client-centric. We were founded in 1979 and are headquartered in Stamford, Connecticut with almost 9,000 associates worldwide. Our clients are located in more than 90 countries and are highly diversified across geography, industry and size. And we have a strong track record of sustained growth. We have delivered 23 quarters of consecutive double-digit growth and we expect this trend to continue well into the future.

An important element of our growth strategy is to acquire highly complementary companies that can increase the value we provide to clients and accelerate our performance. In doing so, we have always worked hard to identify and adopt the best of both companies in order to continuously improve the ways in which we meet the needs of all our clients. We look forward to partnering with you in the same way.

Gartner is a growth company, which creates significant opportunities for our associates. In 2016 alone, we promoted more than 760 associates, and we expect to hire 2,400 associates this year across the entire business. Once we join forces, CEB staff members will benefit from being part of a larger and more diversified organization and the associated opportunities for career development across every function within our business.

Together, we will make a powerful team. We will provide a comprehensive and differentiated suite of advisory services aligned to the mission-critical priorities of virtually all functional business leaders across every industry and size of enterprise worldwide. We're excited to work with you to significantly expand the reach of both Gartner and CEB's existing world-class services and develop complementary new products designed to help all our clients make the right decisions with confidence.

We look forward to working with the CEB leadership team over the next few months and to welcoming you to Gartner.

Sincerely,

Gene Hall
Gartner CEO
